

FAITH + CLIMATE CHANGE A PANEL DISCUSSION

Why People of Faith Should be Engaged, and How We Can Make a Difference

- Len Broberg, professor of Environmental Studies
Global context of the upcoming UN climate change negotiations in Paris
- Rev. Joseph Carver, pastor at St. Francis Xavier Church
Pope Francis' encyclical: caring for our "common home"
- Dan Spencer, co-author of "Earth Ethics" and Professor of Environmental Studies Religious and ethical perspectives motivating engagement on climate change
- Caroline Lauer, Program Associate, Climate Smart Missoula
Climate initiatives in Missoula: practical ways to get involved

Monday
November 16th
7:00pm

University Center Theater,
University of Montana

Free parking

All are welcome!

QUESTIONS?

Abby Huseth
abby.huseth@gmail.com

or John Lund
john.lund@mso.umt.edu

FAITH AND CLIMATE ACTION
Montana