

Tim Palmer

Author & Photographer

"Wild and Scenic Rivers: An American Legacy"

Tim Palmer is the award-winning author and photographer of twenty-six books about rivers, conservation, and the environment. He has been involved in river conservation since 1970 and has received the Lifetime Achievement Award from American Rivers, the River Conservationist of the Year Award, and other honors. Paddler magazine named him one of the "Ten greatest river conservationists of our time" and one of the "One hundred great paddlers of the past century."

Tuesday, February 13, 7:00pm-8:30pm

Gallagher Business Building, Room 123, University of Montana Free and Open to the Public

---

The Rivers Will Run: Celebrating 50 Years of the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act

WILDERNESS INSTITUTE

406.243.5361 www.cfc.umt.edu/wi

Coming February 20

"Developing a Wild and Scenic Rivers Science Agenda in the US and Abroad" Alan Watson, research scientist at Aldo Leopold Wilderness Research Center