

GARDENING FOR WILDLIFE IN BEAR COUNTRY WORKSHOP

 Want Bees not Bears?

The bears are back in town!

Join the National Wildlife Federation and learn how you can Garden for Wildlife, create refuge for birds, bats, and pollinators, all while being mindful to keep bear attractants at bay.

Gain tips to prevent bear conflicts in your garden from MT Fish, Wildlife & Parks Bear Specialist Jamie Jonkel, Garden City Harvest's Greg Price, Defenders of Wildlife's Erin Edge and Russell Talmo, who will give a hands-on electric fence demonstration.

Thursday, April 12th, 5:00-8:00pm
Montana Natural History Center

Cost: $20

(dinner and store gift cards donated by Murdoch's)
