

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Applications Due April 1, 2019

The Matthew Hansen Endowment

Funding for projects focusing on Montana natural history, creative writing, and wilderness studies.

The Matthew Hansen Endowment was established in 1984 as a memorial to Matthew Hansen and his ideals. This Endowment grants awards for projects that explore Montana's land and people through historical research, wilderness studies, and creative writing.

We hope, as Matthew did that these projects will encourage mindful stewardship of the land and contribute to Montana's cultural heritage.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

The committee recommends projects that:

- ◆ Can be completed in 1 year
- ◆ Focus on historical research, creative writing, wilderness studies or any combination

To Apply:

- ◆ A 1-2 page proposal describing the project, how your idea originated, what you hope to accomplish, how the project is related to Montana's heritage and whom will benefit.
- ◆ A detailed budget and timeline with a personal resume and your qualifications
- ◆ A cover page with name, contact info, project title and total budget amount requested
- ◆ Seven copies of your proposal and, if available seven copies of a previous work.

Funding for projects is competitive. Individual proposals will take precedence over institutions.

Awards range from $400-$1000
