Missoula Farmers' Market Tuesday Evening Market Now Open 5-7pm
Convenient source of local products during the week

[Missoula, Montana]: Missoula Farmers' Market is now offering Tuesday Evening Markets from 5-7pm at Market Square at the north end of Higgins Ave by the XXXX's. All Health Department guidelines will be followed. Masks are strongly encouraged.

"We're glad to be able to offer an option for downtown workers and community members who can't make it to Market on Saturday to be able to shop for local food during the week," says Meredith Printz, Manager of the Missoula Farmers' Market. "When you shop at the Market, you support local farmers, ranchers and food producers. Plus you get the freshest, healthiest products available."

The Tuesday Evening Market will feature fresh produce, plant starts, herbs and eggs, with more products to be added in the coming weeks.

The Tuesday Markets run from June through September and accept SNAP, WIC, Senior Coupons And Prescription Produce vouchers.
